Our World

The country that we live in is called England, which is a part of the United Kingdom.

Some people call the United Kingdom the UK.

Our World

What continent is the UK in?

Map of the UK

Do you recognise any of the places
on the map?

Do you think you know where you live?

Your task:

Use an atlas or the internet to label your map of the UK with:

- country names
- capital cities

You will find saved worksheets on the home learning tab – or create your own!

Challenge:

Can you draw the national flags on your map for each country?

To finish – Think about this...

How are the countries of the UK different from each other?

How might they be similar to each other?
